PHI-001 Statement of Philosophy

The Policy Manual of the Wichita Public Library contains the general policies of the Library with regard to the following:

1. The mission of the Library and the responsibilities of the Library Board of Directors as well as the divisions of the Library;
2. The basic principles of materials selection, accessibility to materials, and confidentiality of customers' records;
3. Available services and the policies for the use of these services;
4. The rights and responsibilities of customers and staff; and
5. Fee schedules related to Library services.

The Library Board of Directors establishes policy. Recommendations for policy may come from the Director of Libraries or from staff, but it is the responsibility of the governing board to officially determine and adopt policies.

The Policy Manual of the Wichita Public Library will be updated on a continual basis and reviewed in its entirety each year by the Library Board.

PHI-004 Library Bill of Rights

The American Library Association affirms that all libraries are forums for information and ideas, and that the following basic policies should guide their services.

- I. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.
- II. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.
- III. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility to provide information and enlightenment.
- IV. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of free expression and free access to ideas.
- V. A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views.
- VI. Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.

PHI-005 The Freedom to Read

The freedom to read is essential to our democracy. It is continuously under attack. Private groups and public authorities in various parts of the country are working to remove or limit access to reading materials, to censor content in schools, to label "controversial" views, to distribute lists of "objectionable" books or authors, and to purge libraries. These actions apparently rise from a view that our national tradition of free expression is no longer valid; that censorship and suppression are needed to counter threats to safety or national security, as well as to avoid the subversion of politics and the corruption of morals. We, as individuals devoted to reading and as librarians and publishers responsible for disseminating ideas, wish to assert the public interest in the preservation of the freedom to read.

Most attempts at suppression rest on a denial of the fundamental premise of democracy: that the ordinary individual, by exercising critical judgment, will select the good and reject the bad. We trust Americans to recognize propaganda and misinformation, and to make their own decisions about what they read and believe. We do not believe they are prepared to sacrifice their heritage of a free press in order to be "protected" against what others think may be bad for them. We believe they still favor free enterprise in ideas and expression.

These efforts at suppression are related to a larger pattern of pressures being brought against education, the press, art and images, films, broadcast media, and the Internet. The problem is not only one of actual censorship. The shadow of fear cast by these pressures leads, we suspect, to an even larger voluntary curtailment of expression by those who seek to avoid controversy or unwelcome scrutiny by government officials.

Such pressure toward conformity is perhaps natural to a time of accelerated change. And yet suppression is never more dangerous than in such a time of social tension. Freedom has given the United States the elasticity to endure strain. Freedom keeps open the path of novel and creative solutions, and enables change to come by choice. Every silencing of a heresy, every enforcement of an orthodoxy, diminishes the toughness and resilience of our society and leaves it the less able to deal with controversy and difference.

Now as always in our history, reading is among our greatest freedoms. The freedom to read and write is almost the only means for making generally available ideas or manners of expression that can initially command only a small audience. The written word is the natural medium for the new idea and the untried voice from which come the original contributions to social growth. It is essential to the extended discussion that serious thought requires, and to the accumulation of knowledge and ideas into organized collections.

We believe that free communication is essential to the preservation of a free society and a creative culture. We believe that these pressures toward conformity present the danger of limiting the range and variety of inquiry and expression on which our democracy and our culture depend. We believe that every American community must jealously guard the freedom to publish and to circulate, in order to preserve its own freedom to read. We believe that publishers and librarians have a profound responsibility to give validity to that freedom to read by making it possible for the readers to choose freely from a variety of offerings.

The freedom to read is guaranteed by the Constitution. Those with faith in free people will stand firm on these constitutional guarantees of essential rights and will exercise the responsibilities that accompany these rights.

Wichita Public Library Policy Manual

We therefore affirm these propositions:

1. It is in the public interest for publishers and librarians to make available the widest diversity of views and expressions, including those that are unorthodox, unpopular, or considered dangerous by the majority.

Creative thought is by definition new, and what is new is different. The bearer of every new thought is a rebel until that idea is refined and tested. Totalitarian systems attempt to maintain themselves in power by the ruthless suppression of any concept that challenges the established orthodoxy. The power of a democratic system to adapt to change is vastly strengthened by the freedom of its citizens to choose widely from among conflicting opinions offered freely to them. To stifle every nonconformist idea at birth would mark the end of the democratic process. Furthermore, only through the constant activity of weighing and selecting can the democratic mind attain the strength demanded by times like these. We need to know not only what we believe but why we believe it.

2. Publishers, librarians, and booksellers do not need to endorse every idea or presentation they make available. It would conflict with the public interest for them to establish their own political, moral, or aesthetic views as a standard for determining what should be published or circulated.

Publishers and librarians serve the educational process by helping to make available knowledge and ideas required for the growth of the mind and the increase of learning. They do not foster education by imposing as mentors the patterns of their own thought. The people should have the freedom to read and consider a broader range of ideas than those that may be held by any single librarian or publisher or government or church. It is wrong that what one can read should be confined to what another thinks proper.

3. It is contrary to the public interest for publishers or librarians to bar access to writings on the basis of the personal history or political affiliations of the author.

No art or literature can flourish if it is to be measured by the political views or private lives of its creators. No society of free people can flourish that draws up lists of writers to whom it will not listen, whatever they may have to say.

4. There is no place in our society for efforts to coerce the taste of others, to confine adults to the reading matter deemed suitable for adolescents, or to inhibit the efforts of writers to achieve artistic expression.

To some, much of modern expression is shocking. But is not much of life itself shocking? We cut off literature at the source if we prevent writers from dealing with the stuff of life. Parents and teachers have a responsibility to prepare the young to meet the diversity of experiences in life to which they will be exposed, as they have a responsibility to help them learn to think critically for themselves. These are affirmative responsibilities, not to be discharged simply by preventing them from reading works for which they are not yet prepared. In these matters values differ, and values cannot be legislated; nor can machinery be devised that will suit the demands of one group without limiting the freedom of others.

Wichita Public Library Policy Manual

5. It is not in the public interest to force a reader to accept the prejudgment of a label characterizing any expression or its author as subversive or dangerous.

The ideal of labeling presupposes the existence of individuals or groups with wisdom to determine by authority what is good or bad for others. It presupposes that individuals must be directed in making up their minds about the ideas they examine. But Americans do not need others to do their thinking for them.

6. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians, as guardians of the people's freedom to read, to contest encroachments upon that freedom by individuals or groups seeking to impose their own standards or tastes upon the community at large; and by the government whenever it seeks to reduce or deny public access to public information.

It is inevitable in the give and take of the democratic process that the political, the moral, or the aesthetic concepts of an individual or group will occasionally collide with those of another individual or group. In a free society individuals are free to determine for themselves what they wish to read, and each group is free to determine what it will recommend to its freely associated members. But no group has the right to take the law into its own hands, and to impose its own concept of politics or morality upon other members of a democratic society. Freedom is no freedom if it is accorded only to the accepted and the inoffensive. Further, democratic societies are more safe, free, and creative when the free flow of public information is not restricted by governmental prerogative or self-censorship.

7. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians to give full meaning to the freedom to read by providing books that enrich the quality and diversity of thought and expression. By the exercise of this affirmative responsibility, they can demonstrate that the answer to a "bad" book is a good one, the answer to a "bad" idea is a good one.

The freedom to read is of little consequence when the reader cannot obtain matter fit for that reader's purpose. What is needed is not only the absence of restraint, but the positive provision of opportunity for the people to read the best that has been thought and said. Books are the major channel by which the intellectual inheritance is handed down, and the principal means of its testing and growth. The defense of the freedom to read requires of all publishers and librarians the utmost of their faculties, and deserves of all Americans the fullest of their support.

We state these propositions neither lightly nor as easy generalizations. We here stake out a lofty claim for the value of the written word. We do so because we believe that it is possessed of enormous variety and usefulness, worthy of cherishing and keeping free. We realize that the application of these propositions may mean the dissemination of ideas and manners of expression that are repugnant to many persons. We do not state these propositions in the comfortable belief that what people read is unimportant. We believe rather that what people read is deeply important; that ideas can be dangerous; but that the suppression of ideas is fatal to a democratic society. Freedom itself is a dangerous way of life, but it is ours.

PHI-006 The Freedom to View

The Freedom to View, along with the freedom to speak, to hear, and to read, is protected by the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. In a free society, there is no place for censorship of any medium of expression. Therefore these principles are affirmed:

1. To provide the broadest access to film, video, and other audiovisual materials because they are a means for the communication of ideas. Liberty of circulation is essential to insure the constitutional guarantees of freedom of expression.
2. To protect the confidentiality of all individuals and institutions using film, video, and other audiovisual materials.
3. To provide film, video, and other audiovisual materials which represent a diversity of views and expression. Selection of a work does not constitute or imply agreement with or approval of the content.
4. To provide a diversity of viewpoints without the constraint of labeling or prejudging film, video, or other audiovisual materials on the basis of the moral, religious, or political beliefs of the producer or filmmaker or on the basis of controversial content.
5. To contest vigorously, by all lawful means, every encroachment upon the public's freedom to view.

PHI-007 Libraries: An American Value

Libraries in America are cornerstones of the communities they serve. Free access to the books, ideas, resources, and information in America's libraries is imperative for education, employment, enjoyment, and self-government.

Libraries are a legacy to each generation, offering the heritage of the past and the promise of the future. To ensure that libraries flourish and have the freedom to promote and protect the public good in the 21st century, we believe certain principles must be guaranteed.

To that end, we affirm this contract with the people we serve:

- We defend the constitutional rights of all individuals, including children and teenagers, to use the library's resources and services;
- We value our nation's diversity and strive to reflect that diversity by providing a full spectrum of resources and services to the communities we serve;
- We affirm the responsibility and the right of all parents and guardians to guide their own children's use of the library and its resources and services;
- We connect people and ideas by helping each person select from and effectively use the library's resources;
- We protect each individual's privacy and confidentiality in the use of library resources and services;
- We protect the rights of individuals to express their opinions about library resources and services;
- We celebrate and preserve our democratic society by making available the widest possible range of viewpoints, opinions and ideas, so that all individuals have the opportunity to become lifelong learners - informed, literate, educated, and culturally enriched.

Change is constant, but these principles transcend change and endure in a dynamic technological, social, and political environment.

By embracing these principles, libraries in the United States can contribute to a future that values and protects freedom of speech in a world that celebrates both our similarities and our differences, respects individuals and their beliefs, and holds all persons truly equal and free.

ORG-003.1 Friends of the Wichita Public Library

The Friends of the Wichita Public Library officially began in 1938, although after a decade of erratic activity, interest waned and membership and projects began to dwindle. The Friends had a brief resurgence in 1963, but it was not until the opening of the new Central Library in 1967 that the Friends firmly took hold. The Friends have undertaken many projects over the years, but the goal has always been the same: to raise money and awareness for the Wichita Public Library.

In fall 1991, the Friends opened their Used Book Store on the first floor of the Central Library. Stocked with Library discards and donations from the public, the store has become a dependable source of funds for the benefit of the Library system. From time to time, clearance sales are held to make room for new donations of books and magazines.

A Good Samaritan program administered by the Friends assists customers with special circumstances to resolve outstanding fees in their Library accounts.

The organization is managed by a volunteer board of directors that meets monthly.

ORG-003.3 Wichita Genealogical Society

The Wichita Genealogical Society was formed in 1987 by a group of family researchers, genealogists, and historians dedicated to preserving and sharing genealogical material. Additionally this group had a desire to promote the growth of the genealogy section of the Wichita Public Library, making it a premier research center in Kansas. To help achieve that goal, WGS provides the Lawrence and Lucile Wulfmeyer Special Collections Center with member volunteers who work with the library staff to assist customers with their research questions, raise funds for the purchase of materials, and provide outstanding genealogy and local history programs that raise awareness of the Library's excellent resources for beginning and advanced genealogists and researchers.

CIR-001 Customer Registration

A Library card will be issued to any registering customer who provides identification with name and current address, and who agrees to abide by the circulation policies of the Library.

A customer's first Library card is free. Replacement cards will be issued for lost, stolen or damaged cards at the cost of $2.00 per card. Worn cards will be replaced with current cards free of charge. Customers must present some form of identification with documentation of a current address and fill out a new borrower's card application form before a new card will be issued. Adults are required to sign for minors' replacement cards and show proof of current address.

Library accounts that have been expired for three years with balances under $10.00 and are free from messages that may prevent library use will be deleted.

There are different types of Library cards that may be issued to customers. Below is a list of these types and a brief explanation of each.

1. ADULT

An adult Library card is issued to any person living in Kansas who is 18 years of age or older or an emancipated minor.

An adult who is under legal guardianship or conservatorship or who is a resident of a residential facility for the developmentally disabled (such as KETCH) may obtain a library card with the consent of the person who has legal control of that adult's finances. The legal guardian, conservator, or other person legally authorized to handle that adult's financial affairs must sign the registration form of that adult, accepting legal responsibility for use of the card.

2. E-CARD

Adults over 18 years of age may receive an E-card in order to have access to computers, digital collections and electronic resources. An E-card may be issued by staff to groups or individuals for the purpose of paying meeting room fees online. E-cards do not permit a customer to check out material, place holds, or submit interlibrary loan requests. Address verification is not required for this card. Instead, photo identification and verification of birth date are required. E-cards expire annually.

3. FIRM

A firm card is issued to any business or organization that provides a written request on letterhead stationery. Firms must agree to be responsible for all items borrowed on the agency account. Only those persons authorized to use the card will be allowed to charge materials on the firm card. Firm cards are only issued at the Central Library and will be kept at the Central Library, although accounts may be created to allow borrowing privileges from any Library location.

4. FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY (FRIENDS)

Issued for one year with a paid Gold or Platinum Membership to the Friends of the Library, the "gold or platinum card" type allows members three days grace on overdue materials owned by the Wichita Public Library and no holds charges. Any fees associated with Interlibrary Loan items still apply to Friends of the Library accounts.

Wichita Public Library Policy Manual

5. HOMEBOUND

A homebound card is issued for a three-year period to a person physically unable to visit the Library. Homebound cards are issued by the Programming and Outreach Division and are kept on file by the Library.

6. INTERLIBRARY LOAN (ILL)

Libraries to which the Wichita Public Library sends materials through Interlibrary Loan protocols receive accounts with the ILL card type. Libraries within Sedgwick County receive a special subset of ILL account to indicate that they make loan requests directly through the Library catalog rather than through traditional ILL protocols and systems.

7. MINOR

A minor card is issued to any person living in Kansas who is under the age of 18 and who has not been emancipated. An adult with a Library account in good standing must sign the registration form of a minor, accepting legal responsibility for use of the card. The card will be associated on issuance as a means to hold the adult financially responsible for the minor's debt. Minors who are 16 years of age or over who are or have been married may show a marriage certificate in order to receive a library card without an adult's signature. Minors who have been conferred the rights of majority by a District Court must present a copy of the court's order before receiving a library card without an adult's signature.

8. MINOR E-CARD

Youth under the age of 18 may receive a Minor E-card in order to have access to computers, digital collections and electronic resources. E-cards may not be used to borrow material, place holds, or submit interlibrary loan requests. Any Internet access provided to Minor E-card account holders must be filtered per terms of the Children's Internet Protection Act as it relates to Library eligibility for Universal Service (E-rate) discounts. Address verification is not required for this card. Instead, photo identification of the minor or authorizing is required. Minor E-cards expire annually. Minor E-cards may be issued to students upon the request of their teacher; in this case parents will have an opt-out option (See CIR-004 Issuing Cards to Tour Groups).

9. NEIGHBORHOOD RESOURCES CENTER (NRC) E-CARD

Customers of the City of Wichita's Atwater, Colvin and Evergreen Neighborhood Resource Centers may receive an E-card in order to have access to computers and electronic resources through these facilities. These cards may be issued to children as well as adults. NRC E-cards are good only in the location in which they are issued and may not be used to access public computing services or to borrow materials from the Library. Neighborhood Resource Centers establish requirements for the verification of information provided on an NRC E-card application. NRC E-cards expire on June 30 of each year in order to correspond with the funding year for these service sites.

10. NON-RESIDENT CARD

A non-resident card is issued to any customer who lives outside the state of Kansas. The customer will be limited to two items checked out at any time on their card.

11. OUTREACH

Outreach cards will be issued to groups, schools, or agencies that are being serviced through the Programming and Outreach Division to provide bulk loans. Outreach cards are issued through this Division.

Wichita Public Library Policy Manual

12. SELF-REGISTERED

Customers who complete an online registration for a library card will be given a card type of Self Registered until the registration process is completed with library staff. Self-registered accounts expire in six months if they are not updated.

13. STAFF

A staff Library card is issued to any current Wichita Public Library staff member. New employees will not need to re-register, but will be changed to a staff account during employee orientation. Staff status is removed from accounts at the conclusion of an employee's last day in pay status.

14. VOLUNTEER

Volunteers who serve at least four hours per month for a minimum of three months qualify for Library accounts where holds may be placed at no charge. (See also PER-007 Staff and Volunteer Benefits.)

15. WICHITA WORK RELEASE

Inmates of the Wichita Work Release Facility (WWRF) have access to the Wichita Public Library collection as required by state statute. Accounts are limited to use at the Central Library and are for the loan of books. WWRF documentation is used to create these accounts.

16. BANNED

The banned account type is used to track customers who have been permanently banned from Wichita Public Library facilities.

CIR-006 Interlibrary Loan

Interlibrary loan (ILL) is a worldwide sharing of materials. Items not held by the Wichita Public Library may be borrowed through ILL. Items held by the Wichita Public Library that are lost, missing or overdue for more than 2 weeks may also be borrowed through ILL.

The customer must hold a current Wichita Public Library card in good standing. (See CIR-007 Circulation of Materials.)

Requests for photocopies are only taken if the following information is provided: the title of the source, the date and issue, either the title or author of the article to be photocopied and the page number(s) on which the article appears. Only specific items may be requested; the Library is unable to fill subject requests.

Requests for material outside of the United States are subject to shipment costs.

The maximum cost the customer is willing to pay to receive the item or a photocopy of an article must be written on the ILL form when the request is taken. If the ILL request is made online, customers will be notified of any charges prior to the request being shipped. Any fees passed onto the Library for borrowing or photocopying interlibrary loan materials will be passed onto the customer.

A limit of three requests may be active at the same time.

The lending library sets due dates for ILL materials. Fines will be charged for overdue items according to the circulation parameters set for ILL loans. ILL items may not be renewed. The replacement cost for lost ILL items is determined by the lending library and will be charged against the borrower's record in addition to a $25.00 processing fee.

Any fees passed onto the library for ILL items and any late fees will apply to all accounts.

If a lending library places restrictions on an item's use, the Wichita Public Library will honor those restrictions.

Failure to comply with circulation policies will result in the loss of ILL privileges.

Library materials may be checked out by anyone with a Wichita Public Library card in good standing. Customers are in "good standing" when the amount of fees or lost charges is below $2.01 and there are no items more than 15 days overdue. To check out materials, the customer must present their Library card or show photo identification.

Items checked out from one Wichita Public Library location may be returned to any other Wichita Public Library location.

Most customers in good standing are limited to a total of 150 items on loan at one time. Some account types have more stringent loan limits.

A service fee of $0.25 will be charged for each item that is placed on hold using the Library catalog or that is transferred between locations. This $0.25 fee is paid when the item is borrowed.

CIR-010 Lost Items

If a customer does not return an item within 30 days of the date it was due, the item will be declared "lost" and the customer will be charged for the price of the item. An additional $7.00 processing fee for Wichita Public Library materials or a $25.00 processing fee for interlibrary loan materials will be charged to offset costs related to item replacement and fees assessed by lending libraries.

If the item is returned within 90 days after the item has been declared "lost" the price of the item is credited to the customer's record when the item is checked in and the price of the item is refunded to the customer. An identical replacement copy of a lost print item may be provided by the customer in lieu of paying for the item. (See CIR-012 Replacement of Lost or Damaged Items.)

The processing fee is not credited or refunded to the customer. No additional overdue fees are charged.

For those items that a customer claims to have returned, Library staff will search for the item. If the item is found, it will be checked in and all fines on the item will be waived. If it is not found, the section manager or Librarian-in-Charge may decide to put the item into a "Claims" status. No fines will be charged against the customer's record. Claims items are deleted from the system after six months.

CIR-012 Replacement of Lost or Damaged Items

In keeping with the Collection Management Policy of the Wichita Public Library, the Library does not generally accept replacement copies of lost or damaged items instead of payment.

However, print copies of the identical title and edition in excellent or new condition may be presented in exchange for the charges of replacing a lost or damaged item. Replacement copies of all other items must be approved by the Collection Development Division Manager or his/her designee.

If an item has multiple parts and one component is lost or damaged, the Collection Development Division Manager or his/her designee may determine if a partial fee can be assessed if the other components are in good condition.

The processing fee still applies to all accepted replacement items. The replacement item becomes the property of the Library and is not returned to the cardholder in the event that the lost item is found.

Interlibrary loan and leased materials are not owned by the Wichita Public Library and are not eligible for this alternative.

CIR-013 Fee Payment

Customers may pay fines by cash, cashier's check, check, or money order in person or through the mail. Credit card payments are accepted for account balances of $2.00 or more and can be made both online and in person with a MasterCard or Visa card.

Customers who want to pay for services that do not require a library card must provide valid photo identification in order to pay by check or credit card (MasterCard and Visa accepted). Cash payments are accepted without the need for identification.

If a check is returned as invalid, customer privileges are suspended until the amount of the original check plus any service fee are paid per City of Wichita policy. After a customer's payment by check has been returned to the Library as invalid, that person will be asked to pay on all future transactions only by cash, money order, cashier's check or credit card (MasterCard and Visa accepted).

Customers who owe $10.00 or over may be turned over to a collections agency. Accounts of adult customers with fees of $25.00 or more that have been turned over to a collections agency and are not in bankruptcy may be submitted to the Kansas State Set-Off Program for collection.

Accounts submitted to the Kansas State Set-Off Program but returned to the Library as unable to be processed will be deemed as uncollectable. Fees on these accounts will be waived after which the accounts may be deleted according to the Library's records retention schedules.

CIR-015 Confidentiality of Library Records

The Kansas Open Records Act, Kansas Statutes Annotated (K.S.A.) 45-215, et seq., declares that it is the public policy of the state of Kansas that public records shall be open for inspection by any person. However, the Open Records Act places certain restrictions on this open access. At K.S.A. 45-221, the Act defines what records are not required to be disclosed at the request of citizens or public officials.

Records which libraries are NOT required to disclose include:

1. Customer registration records and circulation or loan records which pertain to identifiable individuals.
2. Library, archive and museum materials, if restrictions have been imposed as conditions of a contribution.
3. Personnel records and performance ratings; however employee names, positions, salaries, and length of service are designated as public information.
4. Building security information.
5. Correspondence between the Library and a private individual, including print and electronic formats.
6. Software programs for electronic data processes; however, each public agency must maintain a register that describes the information that is maintained on computer faculties, and the form in which the information can be made available using existing computer programs.

K.S.A. 45-218, K.S.A. 45-219 and K.S.A. 45-220 define the conditions and procedures related to requesting access including, but not limited to, the charging of fees for providing access or furnishing copies of public records.

It is the policy of the Wichita Public Library that all circulation records and other records identifying the names of library users are confidential. These records will be made available if they can be redacted to eliminate individually identifiable references. Library staff may require advance payment for reproduction costs, including estimated staff time for reproduction, review and redaction of the records requested, before the records are provided. These records will not be made available in original form to individuals (other than the card holder), groups or businesses. These records will not be made available in original form to any local, state or federal agency except pursuant to a subpoena or warrant as may be authorized under the authority of and pursuant to federal, state, and local law relating to civil, criminal or administrative discovery procedures or legislative investigative power. The Wichita Public Library will resist the enforcement of any such order, subpoena or warrant lacking facial validity.

Requests to examine or obtain information relating to circulation or registration records will immediately be referred to the Librarian-in-Charge, who will explain the confidentiality policy.

Upon the receipt of an order, subpoena, or warrant, the Director of Libraries shall consult with the appropriate legal officer assigned to the Wichita Public Library to determine if the subpoena is facially valid, requiring adherence.

REF-003 Public Computer Workstations

Use of public computer workstations is open to all customers with a valid Wichita Public Library card in good standing. (See CIR-008 Circulation of Library Materials for definition.) REF-004 Internet Access and Acceptable Use Policy

Internet access is available on public workstations for users of the Wichita Public Library as a resource to be used in the fulfillment of the Library's mission.

Internet access is available at no cost. Related services may be available for a fee (see REF-003).

The Library complies with state and federal laws with a particular awareness of Kansas laws relating to obscenity (K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-6401, K.S.A. 2012 Supp. 21-6402 and amendments thereto) and federal laws on copyright (U.S. Code, Title 17). The Library complies with the Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA), the Neighborhood Children's Internet Protection Act (NCIPA) (codified in pertinent part at 20 U.S.C. § 9134), and the public library requirements of the Kansas Children's Internet Protection Act (K.S.A. 2013 supp. 75-2589) regarding requirements for use of technology protection measures. Technology protection is not consistently reliable. Every effort will be made by all members of the Library staff to supervise and monitor usage of the public computer network and access to the Internet in accordance with this policy and the Kansas Children's Internet Protection Act. The Library cannot be held responsible for prohibited information that might be displayed.

The Library has in place the operation of technology protection measures that block online access to visual depictions that are child pornography, harmful to minors or obscene as defined in L. 2013, ch. 98, sec.1, commonly known as the Kansas Children's Internet Protection Act. Subject to staff supervision, the technology protection measures may be disabled only for bona fide research or other lawful purpose by adults.

The Library will interrupt or terminate a customer's computer session if material displayed on the screen is not appropriate in a public environment. As all workstations are in view of other customers and staff, users are not permitted to display images containing gratuitous violence or obscenity as defined by Kansas law.

The Internet connects users to resources outside the Library. The Library has no control over these resources. The Library is responsible only for data in files created and maintained by its staff. Customers use the Internet at their own discretion.

As with other library materials, restriction of a minor's access to the Internet is the responsibility of the parent or legal guardian. Parents are encouraged to monitor and supervise their children's access to the Internet.

The Library has no control over computer programs available through the Internet. Any loss of data, damage, or liability that may occur from customer use of programs obtained through library access is not the responsibility of the Wichita Public Library.

Inappropriate use of Internet access will result in cancellation of the individual's use of this service and may result in the loss of other Library privileges. Examples of inappropriate use include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Displaying or disseminating images containing gratuitous violence or obscenity as defined by Kansas law;
- Disclosure, use, or dissemination of personal information that could threaten the safety or security of a minor, any other person, or the Library;
- Attempting unauthorized access to restricted or confidential systems;

Wichita Public Library Policy Manual

- Tampering with computer hardware or software;
- Violation of software license agreements and copyright laws;
- Violation of another user's privacy;
- Any illegal activity, unethical misrepresentation or any form of harassment;
- Use of library workstations for other than their intended purpose.

Illegal acts involving library computer resources may also subject a user to prosecution by local, state, or federal authorities.

Library computer stations are for designated use only. For better service and the security of all users, customers are not permitted to run programs of their own or programs downloaded from the Internet. Other uses that are unavailable in order to ensure security and support of our users include: devices that require software insertion, special purpose browser plug-ins and file storage on public workstations.

The Library's staff will develop rules and procedures as necessary to ensure equitable and reasonable use of public access workstations. The Library reserves the right to terminate a customer's computer session at any time.

Customers who encounter web sites which they believe should be blocked but which are not, or who are prevented from accessing web sites which they believe should not be blocked, may submit a complaint. This should be given in writing to the Digital Services Manager and include the URL of the site in question and whether the request is to block or unblock it. Staff shall examine the site in accordance with this policy and will make changes to the site blocking as may be appropriate.

Complaints about enforcement of this policy or observed customer behavior which may violate this policy shall be submitted in writing to the Director of Libraries, providing as much detail as possible.

The Library maintains subscriptions and links to excellent online information sources that serve all areas of education and research, for minors and adults. Courses in use of electronic resources, Internet safety and computer security are also offered on an ongoing basis. Customers are encouraged to ask Library staff about these very effective, authoritative, and excellent online resources.

REF-005 Photograph Collection Reproduction

Services and Permissions

As part of its public service mission, the Wichita Public Library provides reproductions of items from its photograph collection for personal, research or commercial use. Images contained in the Wichita Photo Archives may be downloaded and printed for personal use free of charge. Regular printing fees will be charged if printed from the Library's public computer workstations (See REF-003 Public Computer Workstations). High-resolution digital images for personal use or for publication and copies of Wichita Public Library photo holdings not contained in the Wichita Photo Archives may be obtained upon request. Fees to offset the cost of delivering these images will be charged. The Library reserves the right to choose the resolution and format and to limit quantities of items reproduced for its users. If an image is to be reproduced in any type of publication, CD-ROM, broadcast, exhibition, web site, etc., written permission is required and use fees may be assessed. Using a reproduction of an image from the Library's collections without the Library's official written permission is strictly prohibited.

Copyrighted Material

The nature of historical archival collections means that copyright or other information about restrictions may be difficult or even impossible to determine. Whenever possible, the Library provides information about copyright owners and other restrictions in the catalog records, finding aids, special-program illustration captions and other texts that accompany collections. The Library provides such information as a service, but it is the customer's obligation to determine and satisfy copyright and other use restrictions when publishing or otherwise distributing materials found in the Library's collections. A reproduction and use agreement confirming the customer's knowledge of copyright obligations is required for all requests to reproduce or use Library images.

Delivery of Material

Images will be copied within two to three business days after receiving the full payment of the necessary fees and a completed Reproduction Agreement Form. Images may be retrieved from the Central Library, may be delivered through regular delivery by the U.S. Post Office, or may be delivered electronically. Expedited mail delivery may be made at the customer's expense. The Library requires prepayment of all required fees and a completed Reproduction Agreement Form before the delivery or use of the images.

Use Agreements and Fees

All customers wishing to obtain copies of Wichita Public Library photographs or to use Wichita Public Library photographs for other than personal or research purposes will be asked to complete a reproduction and use agreement specifying the intended use of the images and detailing the processing and use fees due to the Library in exchange for that use. Fees are charged for the non-exclusive use of images as outlined in the reproduction and use agreement. Subsequent use or reuse of the images will require completion of a new reproduction and use agreement. Use fees are assessed in addition to reproduction charges. The Library reserves the right to waive fees or to set requirements on an individual basis at its discretion.

Scanned Images

Scanned images are copies of items owned by the Wichita Public Library. The Library will not make any adjustments or manipulate the images. All files are scanned at a minimum of 300 DPI. Higher resolution files can be available upon request, but may incur a new scan fee. Images are available in JPEG or TIFF (archival) formats. Scanning the items with the customer's own equipment is not permitted.

Wichita Public Library Policy Manual

Photographing Images

Photographing of images owned by the Wichita Public Library is allowed under the following conditions: 1) the image(s) are being reproduced for personal research purposes; 2) a use agreement has been completed documenting the image(s) being reproduced; 3) camera flash is disabled; 4) the image(s) are kept within protective sleeves or removed only by someone wearing gloves; and 5) a copy of the Library's repository card is included in each photograph.

Book Jacket Use

The fee for the use of an image on a book jacket includes the use of the item in the direct promotion of the work. Wider use of any kind, including derivative products, will require renegotiation.

Web Page Use

Web page use covers the single use of an image on the Internet such as on a web page, in a streaming video, or published in an electronic book or magazine. Images used in a commercial advertisement on the Internet fall under the heading of resale/advertising commercial use or resale/advertising nonprofit/government use.

Nonprofit Use

Nonprofit fees are applicable only to those organizations recognized as having nonprofit status. A commercial company providing contract work for a nonprofit will fall under the commercial use fees. Use by a government department or agency will fall under the nonprofit use fees.

REF-009 Meeting Room Facilities

The Wichita Public Library offers programs and events in its meeting rooms and makes these spaces available to the public. Meeting rooms are available to rent; however, priority for meeting room use is given to the Library and Library-sponsored organizations.

Granting permission to use facilities does not constitute an endorsement by the Library.

Meeting rooms are available to any group or individual, within the fee schedule established by the Library Board of Directors, with the following exceptions:

1. Groups or individuals whose intent is to use the room for retail sales or monetary gain, which includes the receipt or solicitation of contribution, donations, or attendees' personal information for future sales or solicitations. The Library Director may make exceptions for Library-related events.
2. Groups or individuals whose purpose is illegal.
3. Groups or individuals whose conduct would interfere with the proper functioning of Library business.

Persons attending the meeting are subject to all Library rules and regulations. The Director of Libraries is authorized to deny further use of the meeting rooms to individuals or groups who disregard Library regulations.

Library staff reserves the right to enter a meeting room at any time.

If a question is raised as to the goals and activities of any group using the meeting rooms, the Library Board of Directors shall be the final authority in granting or refusing permission for the use of the rooms.

Amenities and Rates

Wireless Internet access is available in all meeting rooms and can be requested at the time of contracting the room.

The Library does not provide staff to operate any equipment. Equipment must be requested at the time of contracting the room. Changes to equipment needs will be accepted up to 48 hours prior to the meeting date. The use of audio-visual equipment is $10.00 per contract.

Library organizations and Library-affiliated groups are not charged for the use of meeting rooms or audio-visual equipment.

When Library meeting rooms are used by City of Wichita boards, commissions, departments, or elected officials representing some or all of the corporate limits of the City of Wichita for official business, rental and audio-visual fees will be waived.

Nonprofit organizations, other government agencies, and individuals and groups engaged in educational, civic, cultural, intellectual and charitable activities will be charged a fee that is outlined below.

Businesses, individuals, or groups that do not meet the nonprofit criteria will be charged an hourly fee that is outlined below. CUS-002 Reinstatement of Library Privileges

Customers who have been permanently banned from the Library may request a re-evaluation of the banning and reinstatement of their library privileges.

Code of Conduct Related Bannings

Requests for reinstatement of privileges lost due to behavior in conflict with the Customer Code of Conduct must be submitted in writing to the Director of Libraries. Requests should include a statement demonstrating an understanding of why the behavior that resulted in the loss of privileges is unacceptable in Library facilities and an affirmation that the customer is aware of and understands the expectations for appropriate behavior within the Library.

Factors to be considered during the evaluation of the reinstatement request include the details of the incident that led to the banning, the length of time since the banning, the status of the customer's Library account, completion of any requirements imposed by the Court as a result of the incident that resulted in the banning and any other information that would attest to the fact that remediation of the behavior that led to the banning has been achieved.

Health and Safety Service Suspensions

Customers who have had Library privileges suspended under CUS-001.2 Suspension of Privileges for Health and Safety Reasons may request reinstatement upon the ability to demonstrate that the situation that resulted in loss of privileges has been resolved.

For reinstatement requests relating to suspensions due to pest infestation, decisions will be made based upon evidence showing that the address in question has been inspected with no sign of infestation or that the residence has been treated. Confirming information may include copies of receipts for treatment, a letter from a licensed pest control company or a written statement from the owner or property manager of a multi-family rental residence. In some circumstances, proof of a change of residential address may also be accepted.

Decision and Appeal Authority

The Director of Libraries will make decisions about reinstatement of privileges in all cases except those based upon threats or physical harm to another person or possession of a weapon within a Library facility. Decisions of the Director may be appealed to the Library Board.

Decisions to reinstate privileges of customers banned for possession of a weapon within a Library facility or because of threats or physical harm to another person will be made by the Library Board of Directors.

Wichita Public Library Policy Manual

CUS-007 Service to deaf, Deaf and Hard of Hearing Persons

It is the policy of the Wichita Public Library to ensure that a consistently high level of service is provided to all community members, including those who are deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing. The Library has specific legal obligations under the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Rehabilitation Act to communicate effectively with people who are deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing. To carry out these policies and legal obligations, the Library instructs its employees and volunteers as follows:

- People who are deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing are entitled to a level of service equivalent to that provided to other persons.
- The Library will make every effort to ensure that its employees and volunteers communicate effectively with people who are deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing.
- Effective communication with a person who is deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing involved in an incident – whether as a victim, witness, or suspect– is essential in ascertaining what actually occurred, the urgency of the matter, and type of situation.
- The type of aid required for effective communication will depend on the individual’s usual method of communication, and the nature, importance, and duration of the communication at issue.

Definitions

According to the National Association for the Deaf, how people “label” themselves in terms of their hearing loss is personal and may reflect identification with the Deaf community or merely how their hearing loss affects their ability to communicate. A person can either be deaf, Deaf, or hard of hearing.

- A. Auxiliary aids and services: This phrase refers to various types of aids used to communicate with people who are deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing. These include use of gestures or visual aids to supplement oral communication; use of a notepad and pen or pencil to exchange written notes; use of an assistive listening system or device to amplify sound for persons who are hard of hearing; or use of a qualified oral or sign language interpreter.
- B. deaf: The term “deaf” (lowercase) refers to those who are unable to hear well enough to rely on their hearing as the primary means of receiving and processing oral communication. These individuals may not rely upon a single mode of communication, and may enlist several different modes for communication, such as a sign language system (American Sign Language, Pidgin Signed language, Signed Exact English, etc.), communicating verbally while wearing hearing aids, as well as using written English. Often, these people have experienced their hearing loss later in life, and are referred to as “late deafened adults.” Their deafness, though unique, does not necessarily bring with it an identity, common language (such as ASL), or culture.
- C. Deaf: The term “Deaf” (uppercase) refers to a particular group of deaf people who share a common language--American Sign Language (ASL)--and a culture. This culture includes a set of beliefs about themselves and their connection to the larger society.

Wichita Public Library Policy Manual

- D. hard of hearing: The term “hard of hearing” refers to those who have some hearing, are able to use it for communication purposes, and who feel reasonably comfortable doing so. “Hard of hearing” can denote a person with mild-to-moderate hearing loss and/or denote a deaf person who does not want cultural affiliation with the Deaf community.

Employees and volunteers may make the first attempt in writing to determine the primary mode of communication with a deaf, Deaf, or hard of hearing person. Many deaf senior citizens do not know sign language, so the primary mode of communication may be in writing. Many Deaf citizens may know sign language but may have poor writing and reading skills, so writing may not always be a good communication mode. A few hard of hearing people may prefer sign language as their primary mode of communication.

Routine Contacts

In many circumstances, oral communication supplemented by gestures and visual aids or an exchange of written notes will be an effective means of communicating with people who are deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing. In other circumstances, a qualified sign language interpreter may be needed to communicate effectively with persons who are deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing. The more lengthy, complex, and important the communication, the more likely it is that a qualified interpreter will be required for effective communication.

To serve each individual effectively, primary consideration should be given to providing the type of communication aid or service requested by the individual. Employees and volunteers should find out from the person who is deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing what type of auxiliary aid or service he or she needs. Employees and volunteers should defer to those expressed choices, unless:

- There is another equally effective way of communicating, given the circumstances, length, complexity, and importance of the communication, as well as the communication skills of the person who is deaf or hard of hearing.

Employees and volunteers whose sign language skill level is not sufficient for communicating with a deaf, Deaf, or hard of hearing person should first attempt to communicate in writing.

Employees and volunteers should not ask a family member or friend to interpret, unless the deaf, Deaf, or hard of hearing person initiates the request.

The input of people who are deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing who are involved in incidents is just as important as the input of others. Staff members must not draw conclusions about incidents unless they fully understand – and are understood by – all those involved, including people who are deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing.

- A. If the deaf, Deaf, or hard of hearing person needs an interpreter to communicate clearly, the employee or volunteer should request a qualified interpreter.
- B. People who are deaf, Deaf or hard of hearing will not be charged for the cost of an auxiliary aid or service needed for effective communication.

If the person makes a request for a family member or friend to interpret, caution should be taken to ensure that the information is being provided directly and accurately to and from the deaf, Deaf, or hard of hearing person. If the family member or friend has a conflict of interest in the situation, he/she may intentionally interpret information inaccurately. In such instances the employee or volunteer should request a qualified interpreter.

Definition/Use of a Qualified Interpreter

Under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), a qualified interpreter is defined as “an interpreter who is able to interpret effectively, accurately, and impartially both receptively and expressively, using any necessary specialized vocabulary.”

Regardless of the circumstances described in the previous sections, employees and volunteers should never hesitate to request a qualified interpreter if one is needed to facilitate effective communication.

A list of qualified interpreters will be maintained by the Human Resources Department. Qualified interpreters are:

- A. City of Wichita employees on the City of Wichita’s official bilingual pay list.
- B. Non-employee interpreters who have been screened by the Human Resources Department for quality and skill, reliability, cost, and availability, and certified by that department as qualified interpreters.

Requests for a qualified interpreter must be approved by the Director of Libraries, Support Services Manager or the Librarian-in-Charge.

- A. The supervisor approving the request will first contact an interpreter who is a City of Wichita employee and is on the City of Wichita’s bilingual pay list. Qualified members of the Library staff should be used whenever possible. If no such employee is available, a qualified interpreter from the Human Resource Department’s list of contractors shall be contacted.
- B. The expense of providing a qualified interpreter will be paid by the Library, assuming that the request was made and approved through the process outlined above.
- C. When a non-employee interpreter is utilized from the Human Resources Department list, the employee or volunteer involved in the transaction must submit an e-mail detailing the reason for service, name of the interpreter, location, and arrival and departure times of the interpreter and the supervisor who approved the service. The e-mail should be directed to the Support Services Manager with a copy to the Director of Libraries.
- D. If none of the means set forth above are available when requested, it will be sufficient that a staff member made a good faith/practical effort to obtain a qualified interpreter, following the guidelines set forth in this policy. Such efforts should also be properly documented and sent to the Support Services and Customer Service Managers. A time should be scheduled for communication when a qualified interpreter is available.

Employees and volunteers must review and have a working knowledge of this policy.

All people in Library buildings during an emergency are expected to follow instructions given by the Director of Libraries, Librarian-in-Charge, and/or emergency personnel.

EME-002 Library Service During Emergencies

Tornado Warnings

During a tornado warning, the Library is not open for service, but public buildings are open for shelter. A tornado warning is declared in one or both of the following ways: the sounding of civil preparedness sirens or announcements on the radio. Staff must take shelter in assigned areas and may not remain in work areas. All customers are required to take shelter in assigned areas or leave the building until the National Weather Service has canceled the warning.

Should the tornado warning begin prior to a site's official opening, the facility will be opened as an emergency shelter when staff is in the building. Should the warning extend beyond the regular hours of operation, staff will remain until the warning has expired and the building is secured.

Other Inclement Weather

The Library's data equipment and files are vulnerable to damage from power fluctuations as well as physical damage during severe weather. During intense storms, some services may be unavailable.

Loss of Essential Services

Library facilities may close if one or more essential services (electricity, natural gas, water, etc.) are lost and public safety would be compromised if the facility were to remain in use.

Communication of Unscheduled Closings

KFDI will be the primary media outlet for communication of any unscheduled closing with the public and staff.

PER-003 Breaks

The rest break is a privilege earned by the employee. It is recognized as a factor that contributes toward efficient employee output. Employees earn a 15-minute break for every continuous four hours worked. For employees who work eight hours, a break may be taken during each four-hour shift.

Breaks should be taken to accommodate public service demands. Breaks cannot be accumulated, used to extend lunches, leave work early, or come to work late. Breaks may not be taken in the first or last hour of a work shift: breaks are to be taken towards the middle of the shift to improve employee effectiveness.

Breaks are to be taken at the break site or where the section manager specifies. Employees who must leave the library grounds may only do so with the permission of their supervisor.

Exempt employees may take breaks but they do not have to be given this privilege.

Employees working alone in a section or location may not leave the service area for break privileges.

PER-004 Flex Time

Division, section and branch managers are authorized to require staff to work beyond the City's official Flex Time Policy in order to meet the public and support needs of the Library. Schedules are made to best serve the unique library needs of each division, section and branch. Part-time employees may not work in excess of 28 hours per week. Non-exempt full-time employees may not work in excess of 40 hours per week without prior approval from the Director of Libraries. Exempt employees are expected to work 40 hours per week, or more if needed, to complete their job duties.

At the supervisor's discretion, individuals may be permitted to shift schedules within the week if the needs of the section or branch and the scheduling request of the employee coincide. Supervisors may schedule flex time for exempt and non-exempt employees if the work requirements are being met and sufficient staffing allows. If flex time use is going to vary from the normal work week for an extended period of time, the Director of Libraries must be informed in writing of intended variations. PER-006 Public Policy and Participation by Staff

It is the responsibility of Library administration to keep all employees informed of actions affecting library policies, both proposed and adopted. It is the responsibility of every employee to keep administration informed of concerns regarding these actions. Since members of the press may be present at meetings when important decisions are made, it is possible that there will be instances when the media will report official decisions before administration can inform library staff.

Public Issues

Staff members have the right and responsibility to become involved in public issues. Membership and leadership in community organizations are encouraged as long as this involvement takes place on an employee's own time, does not interfere with job performance, or create a conflict of interest.

Employees are not permitted to solicit public support for or against library-related issues during on-duty hours. Organizing the public on library issues should be left to the public. No petitions either in support of or in opposition to library activities shall be made available to the public within library facilities. (See City of Wichita City Council Policy #20.)

It is the responsibility of the administration to make information concerning regular and special Library Board meetings available to the staff and customers throughout the Library system in sufficient time for them to express their opinions through proper channels prior to a policy decision.

Once the Library Board of Directors and/or City Council adopts a policy, it is the responsibility of all staff members to abide by it.

Media Relations

A good working relationship with the media is an invaluable tool for the dissemination of library information to the community. To help maintain a positive media relationship it is essential that staff members at all levels be kept as informed as possible of policies, both proposed and adopted.

Comments made by library employees to the media should be limited to a statement of policy. Requests for additional information should be referred to the Director of Libraries, the Marketing and Communications Manager, or the Librarian-in-Charge. All requests for comment on behalf of the Board of Directors should be referred to the Board President or his/her designee.

PER-007 Staff and Volunteer Benefits

In addition to any benefits provided through the City of Wichita, employees of the Wichita Public Library enjoy several privileges.

Staff is not charged hold or overdue fees for Wichita Public Library materials, although continued abuse of this privilege may result in disciplinary action. Staff will be charged unclaimed hold fees and overdue fees for interlibrary loans.

Continuing education opportunities may be available for staff.

Active permanent volunteers will not be charged a hold fee for their library-owned materials in recognition of their service to the library. Permanent volunteers are those who have worked at the Library at least four hours per month for a minimum of three months. Service must be ongoing and not seasonal. A “volunteer” who receives compensation from another organization or whose service is mandated by another organization or the courts does not qualify for this privilege. An individual who continues to volunteer freely after completing volunteer objectives for another organization may then qualify.

PER-008 Volunteer Program

The achievement of the goals of the Wichita Public Library is best served by the active participation of citizens of the community. To this end, the Library accepts and encourages involvement of volunteers at all appropriate levels of programs and activities.

To become part of the volunteer program, individuals must be at least twelve years of age or ready to enter the seventh grade. Parental permission to volunteer is required of all individuals under the age of eighteen. Youth volunteers may volunteer through the teen volunteer program that support summer reading activities or they may volunteer as individuals at any time during the year.

In addition to volunteering for the Library, individuals may become volunteers for the Library's support organizations (Friends of the Library, Wichita Genealogical Society). Unless explicitly noted, this policy applies to all volunteers working in Wichita Public Library facilities as well as volunteers assisting with outreach activities on behalf of the Library.

Definition of Volunteer

A volunteer is anyone who, without compensation, performs a task at the direction of or on behalf of the Wichita Public Library. This includes individuals working within library facilities on behalf of the Library's support organizations. Within the volunteer program are several subsets of volunteers. These include:

- ACTIVE VOLUNTEERS: those who contribute a minimum of four hours of service during the month.
- ACTIVE PERMANENT VOLUNTEERS: those who are contributing service on an ongoing basis with a minimum of four hours of service for three or more consecutive months. Seasonal service does not qualify an individual for "active permanent" volunteer status, nor does service contributed through an employment or community service program. Active permanent volunteers receive some staff privileges (see PER-007 Staff and Volunteer Benefits.) These benefits continue as long as the volunteer remains in "active permanent" status.
- PROGRAM VOLUNTEERS: those who contribute service through or on behalf of another agency or work program. Examples of program volunteers are those participating in student community service activities, work experience programs, student intern projects, corporate volunteer programs and other similar volunteer referral programs. It also includes individuals placed at the Library and paid for their service hours through programs such as but not limited to the Summer Youth Work Experience Program or the Senior Community Services Employment Program managed by the Workforce Alliance of South Central Kansas.
- SUPPORT GROUP VOLUNTEERS: those who contribute service with a library facility but for the benefit of one of the Library's supporting organizations. These volunteers are supervised by those respective organizations and not by the Library's staff or Volunteer Manager.

Wichita Public Library Policy Manual

- TEEN VOLUNTEERS: those youth under the age of eighteen who provide seasonal service during the summer in support of the Library's summer reading programs and activities.

Criminal Records Check

Volunteers must complete criminal background checks if over the age of eighteen and be officially approved by the Wichita Public Library prior to beginning service in the volunteer program. Volunteers with gaps in service of six months or more will be subject to successful completion of a new criminal background check before being approved to return to their volunteer work with the Library.

All support group volunteers who are allowed unsupervised access into staff-only areas of library facilities or who work with cash handling, public computing services or children are required to complete a criminal background check. Support group volunteers providing service in other ways may be exempted from the requirement of a complete criminal background check prior to the start of their volunteer service within a library.

Employees and Employee Family Members as Volunteers

The Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) prohibits currently employed City of Wichita employees, including library staff, from working as Library volunteers.

Family members of staff are allowed to volunteer with the Wichita Public Library. When family members are volunteers, they will not be placed under the direct supervision or within the same branch or section with currently employed members of their family.

Conflict of Interest

No person who has a conflict of interest with any activity or program of the Wichita Public Library, whether personal, philosophical, or financial will be accepted to serve as a volunteer with the Wichita Public Library.

Confidentiality

Volunteers are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of all proprietary or privileged information to which they are exposed while serving as a volunteer. Failure to maintain confidentiality may result in termination of the volunteer's relationship with the Wichita Public Library or other corrective action.

Service at the Discretion of the Library

The Wichita Public Library accepts the service of volunteers with the understanding that such service is at the discretion of the Library. Volunteers agree that the Wichita Public Library may at any time, for whatever reason, decide to terminate the volunteer's relationship with the Wichita Public Library.

A volunteer may at any time, for whatever reason, decide to resign from volunteer service with the Wichita Public Library.

COL-002 Materials Selection Policy

The Library's core resource is its collection, supporting the mission and vision of the Library as approved by the Board of Directors and in accordance with city, state and federal laws. Material selections are considered and decided in terms of each item's excellence and the audience for whom it is intended. No single standard is applied in all cases. Some materials are judged primarily for artistic merit, scholarship or value to humanity; others are selected to satisfy the informational, recreational or educational interests of the City's diverse population. The Library strives to provide a collection in a variety of formats for a wide range of ages, interests, cultural and educational backgrounds and reading skills. The Library collects material reflecting a variety of viewpoints on controversial issues. New formats are considered when demand and viability warrant. Final responsibility for selection decisions rests with the Director of Libraries and the Library Board of Directors.

The Wichita Public Library subscribes to the Library Bill of Rights, the Freedom to Read Statement and the Freedom to View statement as adopted by the American Library Association. In accordance with these statements, the Library recognizes that some materials may be controversial and that any given item may concern some customers. Without anticipated approval or disapproval, selections will be made solely on the merits of the work in relation to the building of the collection and to serving the interests of Library customers. Responsibility for the reading, viewing and listening choices of minors rests with their parents or guardians. Limitations on access to public computer workstations or collections/formats may be requested for a minor child by his or her parent or legal guardian. No other age-based restrictions on access to Library materials will be enforced, except by statutory requirement.

COL-005 Gifts and Donations

The Wichita Library Board encourages donors to make their monetary gifts to the Wichita Public Library Foundation or the Friends of the Wichita Public Library.

Monetary gifts may be unrestricted or designated as memorials or tributes to honor a friend or relative. Donors of funds may suggest specific furniture, equipment, or artwork, as well as subjects or titles of collection materials to be acquired with their donation; however, the Library reserves the right of final selection in order to meet either the space, utilization, and design criteria of a particular building or the criteria of the Collection Management Policy. Library staff will place selected materials in relation to other materials in the collection for the best use by the public.

Monetary gifts received for the purpose of honoring or memorializing an individual will be treated as independent project funds. Gifts intended to assist with the purchase of library materials will be managed by the Collection Development Division Manager with assistance from appropriate selectors. Gifts intended for use assisting with costs of programs or services or for the purchase of equipment will be managed by the Library Foundation President with assistance from appropriate supervisors and staff.

Acquisition of materials and equipment will occur in a timely fashion. When funds are spent to a level where additional purchases within the scope of the project cannot be accomplished, any remaining funds will be transferred to the Library Foundation's General Endowment and the project will be closed.

Gifts of Books and Other Materials

Gifts of books and other materials may be made directly to the Wichita Public Library, to the Wichita Public Library Foundation, or the Friends of the Wichita Public Library. The Library will not accept materials that are not outright gifts and it reserves the right to assign any of its materials wherever the need is the greatest. All gifts must be in usable physical condition. Because of limitations of space, money, and staff, the Library reserves the right to accept or discard, at its discretion, any materials given to the Library. Because of wear, theft and mutilation, the permanence of gifts cannot be guaranteed.

The Library makes every effort to dispose of any gift materials it cannot use to the best advantage, such as through sales through the Friends of the Wichita Public Library or recycling.
